

PLAN MOTION PICTURES OF HAWAIIAN ISLANDS

According to Bertram Bracken, director of a company which passed through Honolulu yesterday on the Marama en route to the United States from New Zealand and Tahiti, the Melies Star Film company may take motion pictures depicting ancient life in the Hawaiian Islands for the use of photoplays.

Accompanying Mr. Bracken are ten members of the company, which was sent from the Santa Paula moving picture studio, about sixty miles from Los Angeles, to the South Seas to get an entirely new line of motion picture subjects among the Maoris and Tahitians. Twelve films were taken in which these people participated with the members of the company. These films will be released in a few months and possible arrangements may be made by Manager McGreer to have them brought here after they are placed on the market.

Mr. Bracken was much interested in the tableaux which have been given by a Hawaiian society, depicting life in the days of the Kamehamehas, and carried away with him considerable data regarding the islands.

The early work fills a long-felt want.

CLAY TO BRING NOTED
IRISH TENOR BACK

As the result of the renewal of an old acquaintance, which happened because Spencer Clay, accompanist to John McCormick, the great tenor, happened to leave the Marama for a stroll about town while the ship was discharging its cargo, Honolulu will have an opportunity to hear John McCormick again.

Will Adams chancing to see Clay on his stroll renewed an old acquaintance which resulted in arrangements being made for a concert when McCormick goes through here en route to Australia, where he has an engagement of several months length. At present McCormick is in London, and the sensation he has caused there equals that of Caruso's appearances. Musical critics have declared that his voice is improving daily.

Clay is a musician of rare ability and his rendition of the old classics has won him wide-spread fame. He was on his way to New York after making business arrangements for McCormick's tour. Although McCormick will arrive here some time in February, he will not sing here until his return trip in August.

The homely girl can act as her own champion.

Police court session was short and sweet this morning. One lone drunk failed to show up at the appointed time, and therefore forfeited bail to the amount of $8. Eight other cases ranging from profanity to larceny in the first degree went over until later on in the week. There appeared to be a general desire upon the part of prosecution and defense to break away from the lower court today.

Not until the next meeting of the board of supervisors, on the 14th inst., will the question of the occupancy of Ala park bandstand for the closing rally of the campaign be decided. Last night the prior application of the Republicans was received by the board and referred to the road committee, but the Democrats registered a complaint that they have had to build a speaker's stand at the other end of the park for the closing rallies of two past campaigns. They think that, if they are to have second choice all the time the other parties should help them to pay the extra expense.
